Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, November 9, 2000 – 10:00 a.m.

Our relationship is of a unique nature, which will leave its mark in the history of Sahaj Marg for abhyasis of the future. They will have advanced in esoteric knowledge and will accept this kind of communication more easily.

They will be touched by the simplicity and sincerity of these contacts, and will note the evolution from the first series. Your channelling faculties have developed to reach this point of apparent ease.

Do not regret the content of that first series, where you exposed yourself more than in others: make of it what you will. Do not fear criticisms, rise above human pettiness. What do you care about the reactions that these messages could arouse in malcontents.

Continue as much as you can. We share the joy of these contacts by giving food for 'reflection' to our dear aspirants who will take the trouble to assimilate them.

Many will benefit from them, this is the most important thing in this matter.

They will also benefit from our blessings.

Take care of yourself and remain united with us through the heart.
