Whispers from The Brighter World

Sunday, November 19, 2000 – 10:00 a.m.

Meditate, take advantage of your Master's transmission. Feel in osmosis with him. His heart transmits to all corners of the world. He allows you to benefit from the power of the means he has at his disposal to serve humanity. Such a being must have much courage and moral strength to take on such a heavy burden.

However great his divine nature, he has to face the constraints of an incarnation.

Be always in a state of receptivity to gain the maximum benefit from the work that is enabled by his greatness as a spiritual Master.

It is a real chance to reach a point of evolution where an opportunity of this kind is given to a human being to meet their profound aspirations, thanks to meeting a guide of this stature.

A living Master of this level can do wonders for each of you. It is the availability of your heart that will lead to the best results.
