Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, December 5, 2000 – 8:00 a.m.

We know that love nourishes you and that it helps you live. We can see your heart and know how you function. You can give thanks to God, it is great fortune to have reached there.

Love is the panacea. When will humans understand this, instead of hating and exterminating one another?

The golden age is not for tomorrow, but each day is a small step towards its realization.

Souls are rising towards the light, and people of goodwill are appearing more and more in the world to help their brethren in difficulty.

The Earth is an immense field of suffering caused by a multiplicity of ills. Constant laments are reaching us. Prayers are raised to the Almighty that, in His infinite goodness, He may one day grant the beings populating this Earth a life that is less harsh and that a spiritual ideal will reign, bringing peace to the hearts of people of goodwill who work for their salvation and that of all humanity.

May this mad world one day wake up to beauty, harmony and love.
