Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, December 19, 2000 – 8:00 a.m.

Why not remain along the same line as previously and keep on glorifying love? Nothing, nobody can stop it. It is more powerful than thunder and all the elements combined.

It could sweep away and transform everything on this Earth, but the time has not yet come. New rules can be established when the accounts have finally been settled.

When humans can look at light directly without being blinded by its power, then Eden can be established here below.

You can cultivate love within yourselves. Call it with all your heart, so that peace and harmony can reign in a universal and divine order, stripped of false beliefs which enslave human beings. May the occult powers disappear, and truth in all its beauty be revealed to humans gripped by wonder.

When a new year approaches, there is every hope for wishes to be answered. By building a perfect world in your hearts, you can do better than just dream of it. This wish is not utopian; all is possible for God, who can refuse nothing to the pure in heart. So it is up to you to prepare a future world in accordance with what we have just mentioned.
