Whispers from The Brighter World

Saturday, December 23, 2000 – 8:00 a.m.

Yes, we could give you a message in English. You doubt yourself in French, so how would it be in that language? We aren't seeking a feat – that you receive these in French is already exemplary.

Yesterday's message had a slightly different rhythm to make you forget the context in which it was received. We cannot provide you with a special cocoon for these contacts. It is necessary to adapt to circumstances. You have a body of flesh and have to conform to its nature. We manage, whatever the cost, to make our voice heard and fill this page. We do emphasize that this work is not as easy as it seems.

We note, despite those details, your ability to adapt. All this is excellent training.

Don't be morose about the situation in Montpellier. It can only bounce back positively. We hope that the abhyasis will become aware of realities on the material plane.

It is good under certain circumstances to keep one's feet on the ground. One should not confuse everything; the Master does not perform this kind of miracle.

The Mission must conform to the rules and the laws of the countries where it is established. It's the least it can do.
