Beloved Master
Revered Babuji Maharaj

Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, December 26, 2000 – 10:00 a.m.

This experience was deliberate in order to make you and your teammates understand how necessary it is to be vigilant when a modification is made to these texts. It isn't about making it look nice, but respecting the spirit which emerges from the words, while ensuring it is in correct French.

There, more than elsewhere, one must go beyond appearances and strive to understand the hidden meaning of our remarks.

These messages are aimed at everyone and each individually. It is in these circumstances that we say: understand who can. The formula is as old as the hills. The Masters of the past and the present say the same thing. Human comprehension develops with time and the openness of the heart that results from spiritual evolution. We always come back to the same subjects, as we see that it is necessary.

We can see, through your reactions, what the reactions of your brothers and sisters will be in the future, and we adjust these writings accordingly.

'The road is clear; smell how the perfume of eternity is rising'. This sums up the entire work done on you that allows you a glimpse of bright prospects for the future. My dear daughter, you have stumbled over this little difficulty of expression, it really doesn't matter at all.

Babuji