Beloved Master
Revered Babuji Maharaj

Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, December 28, 2000 – 10:00 a.m.

This song that rises from your heart to reach us, we hear it.

It is received without the least note being lost.

This most precious of songs, at the same time melodious and powerful, is an expression of the love which binds the disciple to his Master.

Do not be afraid of letting go your heart, what is nobler than this song!

It elevates you above the darkness of the world, and be assured all of you that nothing can tarnish or depreciate it.

On this point, know how to overcome the conventions imposed by your culture and your education.

In the secrecy of the heart, all is possible: the purest alchemy can take place there. It raises the soul towards the Creator; it is the only true gift that you can offer Him.

Be at the rendezvous He gives you all in this sacred place where His presence manifests when it is desired.

Detach yourselves from the world in these supreme moments when the soul calls for grace and can delight in it.

Do not repress any impulse from the heart, it is like a powerful beacon that propels you towards the Unique, and these blessed moments make you advance with giant strides towards 'Him'.

Babuji