Beloved Master
Revered Babuji Maharaj

Whispers from The Brighter World

Saturday, December 30, 2000 – 10:00 a.m.

Get ready inwardly for what we are expecting. Remain in the most complete surrender and as determined as ever to serve us.

For God, nothing is impossible. In due time all the conditions will be met for your destiny to be fulfilled.

Cultivate love within you unceasingly. Love your Master as much as you love us, hence a great stride will be made in the right direction.

The destiny of all beings is like a fabric woven with the greatest care. Certain fabrics, rarer than the others, are given a special attention. Each thread must be solid and flawless; it cannot be otherwise.

You understand these words, you know what we're driving at. Your circle will perhaps be able to decode this language. The future will enlighten them on this point.

Try to show them who you are. One day, they will know it and their own hearts will feel it.

There is no need for speech to make one feel what is.

Don't feel embarrassed, remain in the simplicity of the heart; souls that are close to you understand and receive according to their inner dispositions. Sooner or later, the truth must come out, as clear as day.

That's the way it is. This is what we had to say today. Be at peace, my child.

Babuji

The Medium: Thank you, Babuji, thank you My Masters, and you, my God, for what you allow me to live.