Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, January 2, 2001 – 8:00 a.m.

My daughter, don't change anything about the way you are and the way you proceed. Some of these messages will take on a particular tone, and it will be appropriate to set them apart. The two of you are about to begin a collaboration that we have, for a long time, been hoping for. It would not be understood by most of our aspirants, hence the need to act differently. We'll come back to this aspect of things, so let's allow the system to settle in.

We are happy with your Master's reaction. He is showing his greatness and humility by accepting this form of communication.

These exchanges can be fruitful. A trust will thus be established between you that will make the work easier.

This year will be the starting point of a special relationship that we strongly encourage.

By helping each other, you will be working for a sublime cause. You have our support and our very special blessings, so that this collaboration may proceed completely in the direction we desire.

Don't worry about this prospect, my daughter, it can only be enriching for you two.

Babuji
