Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Monday, December 20, 1999 - 10:00 a.m.

Make efforts so that brotherhood reigns among you. Leave aside, at least in your spiritual life, your tendency of rejecting certain people, the petty jealousies which you feel inside and which are not justified. Rejoice for the promotions of your brothers; you should consider them as a necessity in the organisation of the Mission.

"You should never think you are forgotten, useless; you know very well deep down that it is nothing of the sort. You should keep a check on yourself with rigour; behave like adults, conscious of being equal within the group. The greatness of the Mission must result from this cohesion. You should be candidates interested by all that can enable you to grow favourably on all planes.

"We try with these recommendations to make you become aware of certain negative thoughts which still disturb your mind. Dismiss them pitilessly and you will feel relieved and strong.

"Faith must be your standard; carry it joyfully, with your head held high, released from an overwhelmed mental state."
