Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

You should try to understand fully that all that occurs around you is conducive to your evolution, if you can manage it well. Disappointments, frictions with your fellow men, their changeable and sometimes unpleasant attitudes, represent a treasure for you. If you take things philosophically, you will grow in detachment. We do not expect you to be constantly successful; some achievements from time to time will lead you into the habit of reacting differently, even if in reality your character does not change much.

"We suggest a way of doing things that will make you stronger. We have said it enough; we are not righters of wrongs. In all fields of life, an instructor – a sports trainer, a fencing master or a mountain guide – must guide your steps, point out the mistakes you should avoid in your training. They do all that to make of you a master in their art. The same applies to spirituality; we follow you with the greatest attention and especially with love."
