Whispers from The Brighter World

Wednesday, February 7, 2001 – 10:00 a.m.

To you, my dear son, this means of communication allows us to mutually express all the love that binds us. Even though it does not have all the conveniences you could want, we have, thanks to this channel, the possibility of expressing ourselves, and in that respect we must appreciate it.

My dear son, we see you going through an ordeal related to the idea of your succession and yet we cannot say anything more for now.

We will do our best to ease your mind on this point as soon as possible. Please continue, to move forward as you are doing, out of love for us. This soul bond that exists between us is what is most beautiful and important. Don't lose heart, we beg you. A day will come when you can truly rely on the person chosen to succeed you.

My son, concentrate on ongoing projects. Deal with the most urgent matters and keep on accomplishing the work you are incarnated for.

Satkhol is a great success. Thanks to your action, we have in that a very special antenna. Our combined efforts enabled this magnificent achievement. There is no need to welcome thousands of abhyasis for this objective to be achieved. We congratulate you on the accomplished work.

We will exchange more and more through this means. Be happy; the entire hierarchy is with you. Remain as serene as possible.
