Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, February 13, 2001 – 10:00 a.m.

You two are going to develop this way of communicating. In this manner, all the disadvantages caused by your differences will be eliminated. Distance and language will no longer be as important to either of you.

The Medium: Is the Master aware of these contacts?

You will have to ask him. It's easier for him to express his gratitude in this way. It's a kind of heart-to-heart connection that is establishing itself between you, and it will move things forward. See how these exchanges go so easily for us. Do you think they would be as easy if we were face to face? Human beings limit themselves in certain circumstances.

Be available for this relationship, my dear daughter, you know how close it is to our hearts. This kind of contact has taken on great meaning in his life. His path is fraught with pitfalls, his role is not easy to fulfil, contrary to what abhyasis think. Humanly speaking, my son has his limitations. His age, the scope of the Mission in the world, and the number of our aspirants constantly making demands for non-spiritual reasons, make his task increasingly burdensome. You can recognize how precious these exchanges with us are to him. It has taken quite some time for both of you to get to this point, may you continue to move forward as we wish.
