A Fourth Revelation

Do not forget the symbol and especially the five-branched star. Remain connected with each other through the heart. Go beyond your differences, if any, at the human level; we do not see them. It is important for the future. We have insisted enough, you will understand one day.

"Essentially you are identical, in the same frame of mind with identical motivations. We had good reasons to bring you together. You are at the same time very different and similar; this is what makes a group strong.

"We often repeat ourselves – it is essential. Be always vigilant about your reactions towards your brothers and sisters. Each person has his own personality; it is what makes creation diverse and original.

"Each being is unique in its kind; it carries its own seal, a unique molecule undetectable to the human eye. The surprise of the seekers is not yet over. They have a long way to go yet in terms of scientific discoveries."
