Whispers from The Brighter World

Sunday, February 18, 2001 – 10:00 a.m.

To be the receptacle of Divine love is a beautiful vocation. This Love, just like crystal, shines with a thousand lights.

These things are concealed from the eyes of humans, who, generally, can neither see nor hear.

What does it matter – when a blazing flame burns in a heart offered to His grace, it spreads over Earth like a delicate perfume.

Develop within yourselves this kind of love, with the greatest humility, since only God can give it its finest quality. To be love in every fibre of one's being is not an easy goal to attain. Call for this blissful state relentlessly; live it now in your hearts. Let that become your priority, and your efforts will succeed sooner or later. Love has to be earned inch by inch.

Recover your childhood's heart, simplicity at its best, and confidence in that success.

May your songs rise endlessly towards His infinite power of love and be lost in it, in the purest joy!
