Beloved Master
Revered Babuji Maharaj

Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, March 6, 2001 – 8:00 a.m.

The Medium: Babuji, please ensure that I can serve you until the end.

ou will still serve us for a long time. Service doesn't stop, as long as it is desired.

So have no fear for the future in this regard. My son wishes to manifest himself to you through this direct channel.

Babuji

t's beautiful to see how easy it is for you to perceive our hearts; you receive us so well. What happiness to be able to communicate in this way. Do you realize what that means for us, for me, who is not as spoilt as you in that respect? Yesterday's message did me a world of good. I saw myself again with the Beloved, as we were walking together.

What divine grace, what joy to perceive him like that through those lines meant for me. What delicacy of heart he has for his son who doesn't do everything he would like to please him.

I wish I could build sumptuous buildings to give him, thus endowing the Mission with more Ashrams dedicated to his memory.

If only I were able to undertake even more to make him happy!

His projections for the Mission reassure me, solid foundations have been laid. All that remains is for it to keep growing, for the good of humanity.

Be thanked for this wonderful opportunity given to us by your channel and by His Grace.

S.E.