Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

The Montpellier ashram must have its own permanent life. You must 'inhabit it' with your devotion.

"We repeat, it is a special place; the location is not attractive nor is the architecture remarkable, but this is of no relevance. If you are refined enough, you must feel a special vibration therein. It is up to you to make it attractive, even if this is not the right word. It can become what you want it to be.

"It is a sacred place and sufficiently charged so as to make you feel like coming to it often and leaving positive thoughts in it. See only the beautiful in your brothers and sisters; make true efforts in this direction. You will end up finding what you are seeking there because you yourselves are motivated by the best intentions.

"You should create a luminous aura that will extend beyond the place and will attract your fellow beings.

"Do you really want to obtain this result? That depends only on you."
