Whispers from The Brighter World

A Fourth Revelation

Saturday, December 25, 1999 - 8:00 a.m.

It is not easy to remain serene when the body is suffering; we understand it very well. We have gone through every human state, without which there cannot be a true understanding of others.

"People around you see your appearance, but they do not know what you are experiencing. We, we know, my dear child, and we help you to stand fast when you seem to be drained of stamina. Those who love you enough to admit that you can be sometimes irritable and not always in a state of grace are worthy of our confidence. During their lifetimes they will have to undergo attacks in the face of which they will have to react as human beings. They, too, will not always be understood.

"You resist like a good soldier. You hold as well as possible to the line of conduct that you have set for yourself: serving us by receiving these messages.

"The third series is taking shape and the following one is at a stage that is quite advanced. The contract will be fulfilled and we will see then what will be feasible on both sides.

"Try to regain your strength to benefit from the presence of your dear children-in-heart."
