Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Sunday, December 26, 1999 - 8:00 a.m.

My dear daughter, do you realise the impact these messages can have on people astute and prepared to receive them? You can see an example of it before your eyes at this moment by observing the reactions of these two beings. They know how to derive the quintessence of them and it is a true happiness to hear them speak about these messages.

"Each one perceives and will perceive them in their own way. From where we stand, we have another view of things, which enables us to transmit a teaching a little different from what we provided when we were incarnate. Therefore, these two teachings complement each other. The form is different, although the same topics are addressed therein; we try to convey a different spirit through them, aimed at touching your heart more directly.

"This heart, about which we talk to you all the time, we sacralise it and hope to make you become aware of the role being played in your life by this spiritual heart. It is the centre, and your most precious capital asset. You know how to make it bear fruit; you have all the elements for that."
