Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Your devotion comes down to the essence of things: you love without asking any questions. That is the path to wisdom. Some need to rely on book learning – which was your case in the past – then one day all that can seem to be superfluous.

"Knowledge comes from inside; it permeates all the body's cells, and there, the spiritual being is fulfilled. It does not care any more about scientific or philosophical aspects of the method. The intellect is at rest and the heart delights in the divine presence that dwells in it. It tastes the pure nectar; it thanks humbly for this grace bestowed on it – going to the source inside itself.

"The principle is so simple: it is enough to surrender, to love truly, and more than that to adore, since only God can be adored. You will then feel lighter, happy, in a kind of bliss. May you all get there!"
