Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, June 10, 1999 – 10:00 a.m.

You all have a Master and a way that must transform your life: see only that. Don't dwell on human behaviour. That's a mistake some of our associates make.

Don't worry about other people's reactions and comments. They don't know any more than you do, possibly less.

See only the essential – the Master and his teaching.

Go on your way with this single reference.

Your interactions with the abhyasis you mix with are to be considered as simple fraternal exchanges.

Your fellow human beings are not perfect, nor are you; be tolerant yourselves. Accept them with their weaknesses and their good sides.

Refrain from judgemental rigour distorted by your own shortcomings.

Be in a state of Love; look at others with this state of mind and a gaze full of kindness.

All will be better for you.
