Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, June 15, 1999 – 10:00 a.m.

To illustrate the words that follow, imagine threads of light surrounding the Earth.

This is what happens during gatherings where thousands of abhyasis meditate together. These are moments of unimaginable grace.

The common run of people do not feel it, but the work is done.

That we have been given back this age-old method of spiritual work is a great divine blessing for this time. To illuminate the world is a great purpose.

Suffering humanity will not heal in a few decades, but the treatment already bears its fruit, and this action will be multiplied tenfold in the future.

Let us live in the present time, let each one of us act at our level, according to the role assigned to us.

All of us together, as in an active and buzzing hive – the honey produced will feed many mouths. Thirsty souls will come there and refresh themselves.

In this context, each action is counted, useful and added to the work as a whole.

You are pioneers – have all courage and all possible audacity while in the field, or even alone in your room. Nothing limits you and everything adds up.

It is thrilling to witness the progress of a movement that will help save the world.

Stand tall, may the divine breath carry you, consider yourselves in that way and act for the good.

With our blessings.
