Now that my son has given a signal, it is altogether understandable that you agree to take down the messages of Sulochana. I ask you never to be in doubt again. That is the wish of all of us. We will not change your personality, which we like as it is. Your heart melts literally with love, but you keep cool and remain down-to-earth. You are a difficult case for us.

'Thank you for having taken down that love letter for my son. His wife is happy at being able, through you, to get it delivered to him. You know how hard it is to lose a loved one, and the benefits that your contacts with Francois provided to you. Unlike you, she cannot communicate directly with him, so she is grateful for what can be achieved with the means at your disposal. We will not insist any longer for the moment. The day begins favourably for you."
