Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

No, my child, we will not stop like that. You will get accustomed to this idea and perhaps you will realise the importance of what is given to you, and wish to re-read and take advantage of some advice.

"In this broad review we have made together, we think nothing has been overlooked. Perhaps you will find at the bottom of your heart a certain nostalgia that will make you grow. Beings and privileged moments are only really appreciated when they are lost.

"Be well aware of that. Look around you and inside you. Try to appreciate reality and the deepest being which lives in you, its aspirations that are far from any superficial life.

"Take account of your true personality, of its needs. Do not alienate it to always satisfy egotistic needs, personal desires; you should be able to sometimes put them aside to express more altruism around you. You will realise how much joy this behaviour can bring you.

"Try, it does not cost anything and can give you happiness."
