Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

You do not want to converse any more, or to express your feelings in any way. If I refer to you too often you feel embarrassed. Do not mind what those who read these messages may think; they are not compelled at all to do so. If you dwell on human reactions, you cannot do anything. Are you not surrendered? Therefore, be really surrendered.

"My autobiography, published after I had left the Earth, gave rise to many criticisms. I was never understood, but that does not matter! Some of our candidates have appreciated it; they did not doubt that the greatest beings were visiting me, guiding me and giving me instructions concerning the Mission and myself.

"No matter what one may say or write, we cannot have unanimous support. That is the way it goes, it is sadly human. What matters is to touch some hearts and to convince them by giving them a food suited to their broadmindedness.

"We cannot reveal great truths on religions, for example, without shocking. The majority of men have their own reference points; they don't want to be shaken up. They are like children fed with nice legends which fully satisfy them."
