Yes, we could give you a message in the English language. You have feelings of self-doubt in French; so, what if it were in that language? We do not seek any feat, that you get these ones in French is already exemplary. Yesterday's message had a slightly different rhythm, to make you forget the context in which it was received. We cannot arrange a special cocoon for you, for these contacts. It is necessary to put up with the circumstances. You have a body of flesh and you must conform to its nature. We manage at all costs to make you hear us and fill out this page. We thus underline that this work is not as easy as it seems.

One should not confuse everything: the Master does not make this kind of miracle.

"The Mission must conform to the rules and the laws of the countries where it is established. It is the least that should be done."
