Whispers from The Brighter World

A Fourth Revelation

Saturday, January 8, 2000 - 10:00 a.m.

It is good to thank us for having chosen you as a medium; yes, it is a favour, but it is justified. We had to pressure you to make you share these messages with some reliable people around you, which has made it possible to give them shape in a printed form.

"We have always appreciated your discretion, but it had to be overcome so that these writings could take on their true meaning. They already have their place, they exist and their future will decide on their destiny. When the time comes, the holders will be inspired to make good use of them.

"Remember well that dialogue must be established so that the true meaning will be respected in minute details. We trust you on this point. Let time do its work, there is nothing pressing.

"These messages have their own life; they represent not only a teaching, but their subtle vibrations touch hearts. You, who are the first to benefit from them, you must become aware of the changes taking place in you since you have started reading them; meditate well on this aspect."
