Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Sunday, January 9, 2000 - 8:00 a.m.

Consider your body as a divine gift. It is an exceptionally rich tool. What you must endure is a blessing.

"We can venture to speak to you like that because you know it well, and without it, you would not have come this long way. Pleasant outings, long haul journeys, which have not been the order of the day for a long time, would not give you the same results. Your life's path had to be like that and you had a presentiment about that since your early childhood.

"Advance in surrender, accept your destiny, go further and further into this work on yourself, thus will this incarnation take on its full meaning. Neither your globetrotter dreams nor those of a life of action were fulfilled, but regrets are sterile and you have understood that for a long time, otherwise you would not have reached this stage.

"Your career is exactly as it had to be, even if it is not to your liking. When you come to rejoin us, you will realise its richness. You will be thanking endlessly and singing the praises of the divine Creator."
