My son reacts to the present incidents as a high level spiritual Master must do by appealing for wisdom and love in response to this hatred, virulent scourge of the world. What can common mortals do, isolated and helpless in face of such attacks?

"This barbaric act sounds the death knell for human liberties. As we have just said in the previous message, there are limits not to be exceeded. And yet, it will be necessary to go until the end of this cycle, so that irremediably, this murderous madness is brought under control.

"You can only act by developing love in your hearts and building therein a worthy and equitable world blossoming through faith and a highly spiritual process. Only it can bring the greatest hope towards a happy humanity.

"Wake up, if not yet awakened—your time of action towards redemption on this Earth is numbered.

"You have all our blessings."
