Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

You do exactly what we expect of you, my dear child. One of the aspects of your mission is expressed through your taking of these messages; do you realise the manna they conceal?

"There are well-known mediums, and mediums who left literary works addressing various topics, or who left pictorial or musical works, which are nothing more than a channeling achievement. It is useless to cite names. The mystery has to be kept about these works that marked the history of this civilisation.

"This means is much more widespread than you can imagine, but the artists, the well-known authors and creators, remain quiet about it, as they would not be taken seriously. Some were regarded as inspired visionaries; so they were, indeed. Their own talent would not have been enough to produce what they have added to the heritage of their country.

"We insist on this aspect, as we can see that your friends are intrigued by this phenomenon. It is more frequent than you imagine. True mediums are generally discreet; those who claim to be mediums make a business of it most of the time. There, like elsewhere, there are many dishonest people."
