Be confident in your future, overcome fears that currently overwhelm you. How effective are they? Live each day as being a blessing, a moment of grace, with these contacts which not everybody can have. Moreover, they connect you to the heart of your Master as he receives these messages on a daily basis, according to the wish that was expressed on this issue. Your team is well set up, which we do appreciate. Only see positive aspects of your situation, as you know we are taking care of your heart, my child. You belong to a large family of hearts whose cohesion cannot necessarily be seen at the human level, but it exists and can be believed. Surrender to the Divine and to those who act in His name. You entrusted your destiny to them, in order to progress towards the main objective of your life, i.e., spiritual realization. Is it not the most beautiful vocation? What else is more exciting for a being who understands the real meaning of being incarnated in this world?

"Human beings need to be reassured; some periods of their life are fraught with specific problems, which they have difficulty coping with. We do not go into the details of the material dimension of this life, which results from an individual karma the broad outline of which cannot be modified. Some of its aspects can be adjusted: God is great, He cannot resist the call of a sincere heart. All our brothers and sisters know it. Each one of them at a given point in time in their life experienced it."
