Saturday, September 6, 2003 - 10:00 AM

A step has been taken in the history of the messages; it will rest with my son to cogitate about the future, which he intends them to have. We are very much satisfied with this meeting. It seems that barriers between you both have been broken down and that is good, concerning ensuing events. They sometimes happen more quickly than men can envisage. God is great and He makes his intentions imprinted in men's heart, when He thinks fit to do so.

"The departure of my Beloved son has left a vacuum in your heart, which you did not imagine possible. You see how grace works when it sees fit to manifest itself at a given point. You are feeling connected to your Master more than ever, in a very pure and selfless way, like genuine disciples do. They are rare in this multitude of well-intentioned abhyasis who run after him, trying hard to approach him for all kinds of reasons specific to human beings. Be that as it may, these spontaneous shows and fervour that our aspirants express to him during his visits show how much our way works in the hearts, under his high guidance.

"Remain anonymous, as you like to be and carry on your way, my daughter. You are not working in vain: the future will show it brilliantly. Be surrendered to our will. A time will come when all will be revealed."

Babuji