Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Monday, January 17, 2000 - 10:00 a.m.

My dear children, before closing this series, we deem it useful to tell you and repeat always the same things. We want you to be as best equipped as possible and, like parents that ramble a little, we repeat ourselves thinking we thus help you to assimilate as many truths as possible.

"We carry you in a certain way, but your steps must make you touch the hardness of the ground on which you are walking. You must avoid the hollows, walk round the bumps and choose the place that you deem safer before going into it.

"The road is long, even if the sun is shining above your heads. You must strive to move forward. Nobody can do it for you. It is up to you to decide and face up to your responsibilities before acting.

"We trust you, knowing that your hearts are motivated by the best intentions. If you fall sometimes, we know that you will set out again more determined than before, and we will be there for you, to help you."
