Friday, October 17, 2003 - 10:00 AM

Life on Earth, from the first to the last moment, is an ordeal. It is educational and allows one to surpass oneself to build a strong personality. Spiritual openness is an opportunity given to man to foster his accomplishment. By fervently getting into a way likely to liberate him from the obstacles of this world, he makes long strides. Our aspirants do not always seize the opportunity given to them in such a process, as they don't try to go in greater depth into the real possibilities offered to them by our way. Behind its apparent simplicity are concealed many resources. The important thing is to get into a way. Sooner or later, the thirst for the Divine will be felt and it will lead the researcher toward a more correct approach.

"The Sahaj Marg Mission opens its doors wide to whoever wishes to really work. It is enough to take an active part, to discover the relevant benefits. There comes a time when all the comments on this aspect become superfluous, the effectiveness of our method becoming obvious for the majority of our brothers and sisters. Each human being, at a stage of his evolution, must find his own way. Ours is open to all. God is great, He guides the hearts as He sees fit.

"Humanity has been always suffering, but it has reached a stage of its history where it must really change on pain of getting lost. Let us continue to work towards the good, so that it can emerge according to great divine plans. Let us keep trust in these beings that fight and progress in spite of everything. Many of them keep faith in this divine power, which they call to from the bottom of their soul.

"May they be supported and blessed."

Babuji