Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Thursday, January 20, 2000 - 10:00 a.m.

This love is shared, my child, you know it. It accompanies us from life to life. Destiny has been such that we have not met in this last incarnation, yet our current relationship is beautiful.

"Would we have communicated with each other if you had come to see me in Shahjahanpur? I doubt it; our respective sense of propriety would not have allowed it. The gift that you received is a true blessing; you can see what it enables us to achieve.

"You ask me to speak about love again? Love is the most beautiful thing we can give or receive and also the thing we take with us beyond this Earth. It is a kind of viaticum from which we do not part.

"Pure love, selfless, in its most beautiful and most sublime form, is a true treasure. It is a godsend; it is our best food.

"Be insatiable, give without counting and you will have the return. This love, above human lowness, is a godsend to be cultivated, maintained inside you as your most invaluable good. Never forget it."
