Your heart was released from cumbersome burdens obstructing its way, and your suffering accelerates the process. Such is your destiny. Each one has his own that helps one mould one's personality in a constructive way, provided that it is accepted from that perspective. It is not always easy to understand the reason for the successive ordeals occurring until the end of an incarnation. The wise man tries to accept his condition and to admit the principle of life, as it is. When he is ready to begin a way, his vision changes, his broadmindedness enables him to look further into phenomena, which hitherto he was indifferent to.

"At the point where humanity currently stands, many souls are ready and are waiting for the right moment for their blossoming. They are looking for a means suitable for them, as they have not found it yet, and some experiences here and there have not convinced them. When the moment comes, the Master and the aspirant meet inevitably. All is planned; that is how the movement of life, in its surprising meanderings, is.

"Our way contributes to preparing tomorrow's world. Its expansion towards spirituality cannot be circumvented, and it is being prepared in the hearts before even giving striking signs of its attractive power.

"The cosmic forces are working; man, in his extreme smallness, follows this movement without his knowledge, although he benefits from it completely, whatever his receptivity on the subject. Everything is being set up slowly. The divine laws cannot be circumvented and their manifestation is powerful, inevitably."
