Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Saturday, January 22, 2000 - 10:00 a.m.

Your luck, as compared to the greatest number of individuals populating this Earth, is that you have the certainty, when the time comes, to possibly find again the companion you lost and whom you love so much. You will be able to resume working together – probably on missions – and to relive this special relationship you had in the last years of his existence.

"This union was successful; your eternal bond of soul enables you to communicate. Do not let yourself be overwhelmed by sadness, my child, even if you miss his presence immensely. He protects you and watches over you as if you were the most precious asset.

"His love for you has evolved towards a nobler dimension; your two souls vibrate in unison and nothing will be able to separate them beyond the realm of physical tests and cataclysms – which can always happen on Earth. Nothing will break this unfailing bond."
