The Mission is making progress in the hearts; it offers to those who are ready the opportunity to engage in a non-sectarian system. We provide information upon request, but it is not up to our brothers to anticipate, especially in some countries where minds remain very mistrustful of what is not recognized institutionally.

"The time has not yet come when free expression in this area can be put forward. It was never within our remit to proselytize, and we will not start now. Our way does well without that, for its goal lies elsewhere. The call of the heart must be made heard, first and foremost; our teaching is effective in this context. A true commitment is the primary condition.

"The ways of God prevail as is proper. Let us rely on them. Our Mission is expanding on its own in the world; let us not change anything. Souls are opening to divine realities. Let them open out and find their best path: that which befits them. The development of our brothers in their process, isn't it the best example!

"The onus is on each one to work from this point of view. It is not forbidden to speak about one's personal enlightenment, thanks to this method. When the moment has come for a soul to open out, it can find its way and consequently its Master.

"Our blessings to all,"
