Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Sunday, January 23, 2000 - 8:00 a.m.

We will soon complete this series. You need to take a rest, and the previous series is yet to be formatted and printed. There is a lot of work to do; editing must be done with rigour so that everything is well set up from the outset.

"It is a blessing for you all to devote yourself to this work. Time will decide about the life of these messages; let it do its work. You are already doing your part with love and gratitude. Contributing to the finalisation of these documents is a personal enrichment.

"Thanks to these writings, we have come quite a long way together. May they leave their mark on you definitively by leaving in your heart a subtle and indefinable scent – which, though, you will be able to recognise.

"You are no longer exactly as you were before and so will you be for the remainder of your days. You have to finish your work and all will have been said; we bless you."
