Wednesday, December 1, 2004 - 10:00 AM

What you are experiencing in your physical body does not at all limit your mediumistic capabilities, whose potential is not completely employed. For that, special practice would be necessary. As we have already said, your framework of life does not facilitate this extension; what is missing, amongst other things, is to have reassuring company.

"Let us continue in the same spirit for the moment. We will see how better conditions can be created to foster our projects. Surrender more and more to the appeal of your heart; it is a prime guide that managed to find the way to ours brilliantly. Always listen to it; it is not mistaken. Do not trust appearances. In any event, what happens is in line with our projects. Remain trustful, imperatively.

"For you, the good of the Mission prevails; we take it into account and act accordingly. To surrender to the Master is not tantamount to laying down the law; you know it and you abide by these principles. Let love continue carrying you and inspiring you. Doesn't it provide you with your greater joys?

"Remain receptive and attentive to our wish; that is how your destiny is fulfilled. Each one of our brothers can be inspired by these remarks. All are the links of an endless chain being built on Earth. It also gets its bearings in other purified spaces, consolidating bonds and the effectiveness of our Mission. The best of this human movement will remain, which will keep growing stronger. It corresponds to current times preparing an unprecedented evolution, to which our work is contributing."

Babuji