Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Tuesday, January 25, 2000 - 8:00 a.m.

Do not worry, my daughter. There remain some aspects to be finished off, but the main part of the work is done.

"Those who will read you will not realise the energy this work has required of you. These contacts have also brought you joy; this love-driven effort actually required some compensation.

"Love will have been the recurring theme of these messages. Their simplicity of reading and what emanates from them will be felt by the souls divested of superfluity, of useless aspects, and who do not indulge in using erudite words.

"It is an exchange between simple souls; this is what will touch the greatest number.

"The more you approach the truth, the better you will understand these comments.

"We will not impose on you; today again, you need to take a rest.

"Accept these messages for what they are; all has its raison d'être. Be confident in us."
