Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Wednesday, January 26, 2000 - 8:00 a.m.

Let love be the centre point of your life. All your actions can originate from it. This underlying driving force can only make you act advisedly. Thus the impure thoughts, resentment, even hatred and its trail of harmful actions will be chased away.

"Love will embellish your life; you will see the best in people that are in your circle. You will look at nature and its wonders, and the whole of creation with a feeling of gratitude. This will make you feel joy and your life will be transformed from inside. On the outside, it will remain as it is, but you will endeavour to see it as better and also to see only the good side of each being around you.

"With this view of the world, you will contribute to making it healthier. Your positive thoughts will counterbalance all that must change and evolve towards moving to a better world."
