Beloved Master
Revered Babuji Maharaj

Monday, October 30, 2000 - 10:00 AM

At this point of your progress, you must specify your objective well. Nothing is imposed. You advance at your own pace and only hearts with a great love of absolutes aspire to higher discoveries. We understand and support their efforts towards attaining the goal they have set for themselves. We know the pitfalls; road difficulties must be present within the mind of the candidates. There is no wave of the magic wand. Our method is absolutely sure, and your Master is capable of taking you to the highest level, but according to your own will.

"You must fully participate in this ascension. The mountain to cross is within you, as you know. All conditions are met towards leading you to this victory over yourself.

"We keep on repeating ourselves. Humans need these incessant returns to the truths that concern them intensively. These multiple repetitions help shape victories. They cannot be won without your knowing, otherwise where would the complete success-based happiness come from?"
