When will man understand that only love can save the world?

"This word is so often overused, distorted or half-heartedly used, even in a spiritual way like ours. This concept is misunderstood and abstract; it cannot be proved by a rational explanation. Only a completely open and receptive heart can feel its benefits. A true spiritual process necessarily leads to it and intensely puts it into practice. It is the only food that the soul enjoys. It must be sought and maintained carefully. It is the supreme refuge. God being love, it is inseparable from faith, and without it faith cannot really blossom.

"We can never extol it enough; in these troubled times for the world, one can only note how desperately it is lacking in men. The great revelation will be hearts being conquered by its unique power, since it is the highest expression of the Divine. It is ignored, misunderstood, the hearts not being ready and willing to receive it. This conquest will take place. It will take time, but to God nothing is impossible.

"You who are open to its impacts, you who are longing to only be Love, surrender and compassion—cultivate this power in yourself carefully. Let it grow and invest completely your heart. That is what we wish you, with our blessings."
