The principle underlying these messages is that they are aimed at the large audience of brothers and sisters who will take the trouble to read them. They will help adopt a behaviour conducive to spiritual work. We target them through you, since all human beings react more or less in the same way.

"These messages aim to support the work of their Master, by insisting on aspects that our abhyasis tend to lose sight of. It even happens that those who stick to their objective fall for the turbulences which human nature bustles about, and which do not highlight the best of their incarnate person. Didn't the Apostle Paul say, 'Until the end, shall I have to fight against this other myself?' No one can escape this manifestation of tendencies, which each one must take into account.

"Life on this Earth is difficult: man is subject to various tensions that make it difficult for the 'divine self' which is seeking to happen, to do so. We are trying, through these writings of a particular kind, to modestly provide some elements likely to draw the attention of the readers. The future will show whether we were right; they are an expression of our love for all our brothers and sisters in search of a very high level spiritual ideal. Every effort must be made to that end, which my son is striving towards in priority; and we support all his actions, since he is the one we chose as the most capable of representing us here below."
