Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

However elevated you are here below and however refined your love, it is nevertheless a human love.

"Love, here, is of another essence. It makes us act for your good and you do not always appreciate its appearances. We are far from being insensible to your sufferings and to the effects caused inside you by some of our decisions and to the reactions in particular circumstances.

"Our conception is different from yours. We do not act to flatter your ego, but to prevent it from checking your evolution. Our way of acting is often misunderstood and some of our brothers prefer to renounce and leave us instead of questioning themselves and changing course, as they fear their own truth.

"What else can we do? Even though these behaviours sadden us, we can only take note and let them make their own experiences."
