Saturday, February 5, 2000 - 9:30 AM

My son's spiritual entity accepts the principle. We must advance step-by-step. The incarnate being must accustom himself to the idea of using this means of communication with us.

"It is a question of adaptation and implementation of the system. We wish it to be so, and it should be done.

"Look after yourself as much as possible my child; go to the main thing, save yourself for us. We love you and we support you."

Babuji