To go exploring one's true aspirations by oneself, beyond materiality where the present incarnation is taking place, that is the challenge. How many human beings reach that point? Caught in the game of life, most of them neglect this fundamental aspect of their real being. The aspiration for the Divine comes out, but they do not take account of it. A sudden reversal can occur and make them become completely aware of that need. Then these aspirants become eager to make up for lost time. The ways of God are quite unfathomable, and this world is a living example of it.

"A soul which opens up to the divine life is a very precious jewel; it is given every special attention, to guide it on the way to joining the multitude. To enthuse in God, in the wake of these fervent beings, is an unspeakable happiness. This sacred union is admirable; far from miasmas where humanity is living out its bad inclinations. It is taking shape towards the original purity, towards which the souls are advancing in unity.

"A high level spiritual Master is the ideal guide chosen on the occasion. Happy are those who benefit from him; he spares them mistakes that can always occur in this process. Vigilance until the end remains necessary as the goal to be reached deserves every attention. The objective to be reached is the awakening of all these souls still trying to find themselves, caught in a testing wandering which hides from them a reality they secretly aspire to."
