Regain your composure; immerse yourself in the heart of divinity. This slot between the matters of the world and the greatness of divinity enables you to have access to us. Let yourself be carried away on the wing of love. These comments may seem incongruous in a world enamoured of a frenzied materialism. No matter what may occur here below, this eternal virtue will remain: the divine laws remaining timeless and beyond the madness of men. Many venerate these immutable spiritual values, in one form or another; they always prevailed in the heart of those who crave for them and respect them.

"The various civilizations that succeeded one another on this planet had a notion of God and revered Him in many forms. What matters are only the spirit and the fervour of the beings in their practice; nothing has changed basically on this point, since the mists of time. Divine energy resides in hearts, irrespective of whether they are aware of it or not.

"The awakening of consciousness occurs according to the needs; the laws of evolution are not understood by men, their judgments being based on the level of matter. The world of the Spirit is out of their reach and they are not ready to grasp it. The divine laws will keep their mysteries eternally; compared to those, the smallness of man is infinite.

"To praise God, to love one's Master, one's guide in this world and beyond, when happily he comes to us, is a distinguished grace. May all our brothers realize their luck, and all be blessed."
