(In meditation.)

My child, your life is going to change; you should be prepared to modify it. You must focus it much more on the spiritual. Do not neglect your abhyas, as you do. How can you expect to progress and serve me on higher planes? Change your way of life, you should be more in a state of love and I will give you more. Do you really want to serve me? Then love me to the full and be at my and his disposal; he will need that availability. In a few days, I will give you a message for him. Think well of what I told you. Go to the ashram more often; speak on my behalf. Radiate love; it is desperately lacking in this world. I love you my child, and I support you; don't forget it, no matter what happens."
